Explanatory Notes

For the purposes of this form –

“relevant person” means that a pecuniary interest is a ‘disclosable pecuniary interest’ in relation to you if it is your interest, or it is an interest of yourself or:

- (i) your spouse or civil partner,
- (ii) a person with whom you are living as husband and wife, or
- (iii) a person with whom you are living as civil partners, and you are aware that the other person has an interest.

“relevant period” means 12 months ending with the day on which the member gives the notification.

“the Act” means the Localism Act 2011;

“body in which the relevant person has a beneficial interest” means a firm in which the relevant person is a partner or a body corporate of which the relevant person is a director, or in the securities of which the relevant person has a beneficial interest;

“director” includes a member of the committee or management of an industrial and provident society;

“land” includes an easement, servitude, interest or right in or over land which does not carry with it a right for the relevant person (alone or jointly with another) to occupy the land or to receive income; and

“securities” means shares, debentures, debenture stock, loan stock, bonds, units of a collective investment scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(b) and other securities of any description, other than money with a building society.
